 FROM : [REDACTED], DDI/Congressional Support
 SUBJECT : Briefing for HPSCI Member

STAT

1. On Wednesday, April 20, new HPSCI member Congressman Dave McCurdy (D/OK) will attend the DCI's breakfast for HPSCI from 8-9 a.m. McCurdy has proposed remaining at Headquarters for the rest of the morning for briefings on "the Soviet strategic threat" (see LLD's attached letter).

2. On February 28th, we responded to McCurdy's first briefing request on Soviet air defense systems. [REDACTED] STAT
 [REDACTED] SOVA did the briefing and found McCurdy STAT extremely pleasant, cooperative and deeply interested in the topic. (McCurdy is also on the House Armed Services Committee.)

3. I called [REDACTED] for suggestions in designing STAT
 McCurdy's program for the 20th. [REDACTED] suggested we consider the STAT
 NIO/SP [REDACTED], asking them to brief on STAT strategic deployments and Soviet naval activities worldwide.
 SOVA could supplement wherever necessary.

4. Do you or Bob Gates have any interest in talking with McCurdy on this or any other topic? Do you have any suggestions as to what we should include in McCurdy's program? McCurdy is a former Air Force pilot and, according to [REDACTED] can be STAT briefed on a fairly sophisticated semi-technical basis.

No!Bob
